ABOUT PHOTOSENSITIVE SEIZURES

A very small percentage of people may experience a seizure when exposed to certain visual images, including flashing lights or patterns that may appear in video games. Even people who have no history of seizures or epilepsy may have an undiagnosed condition that can cause these "photosensitive epileptic seizures" while watching video games.

These seizures may have a variety of symptoms including: lightheadedness, altered vision, eye or face twitching, jerking or shaking of arms or legs, disorientation, confusion, or momentary loss of awareness. Seizures may also cause loss of consciousness or convulsions that can lead to injury from falling down or striking nearby objects.

Immediately stop playing and consult a doctor if you experience any of these symptoms. Parents should watch for or ask their children about the above symptoms—children and teenagers are more likely than adults to experience these seizures.

The risk of photosensitive epileptic seizures may be reduced by sitting further from the television screen, using a smaller television screen, playing in a well-lit room, and not playing when you are drowsy or fatigued.

If you or any of your relatives have a history of seizures or epilepsy, consult a doctor before playing.

OTHER IMPORTANT HEALTH AND SAFETY INFORMATION

The Xbox video game system documentation contains important safety and health information that you should read and understand before using this software.

AVOID DAMAGE TO YOUR TELEVISION

Do not use with certain televisions. Some televisions, especially front- or rear-projection types, can be damaged if any video games, including Xbox games, are played on them. Static images presented during the normal course of game play may "burn in" to the screen, causing a permanent shadow of the static image to appear at all times, even when video games are not being played. Similar damage may occur from static images created when placing a video game on hold or pause. Consult your television owner's manual to determine if video games can be safely played on your set. If you are unable to find this information in the owner's manual, contact your television dealer or the manufacturer to determine if video games can be played on your set.

Unauthorized copying, reverse engineering, transmission, public performance, rental, pay for play, or circumvention of copy protection is strictly prohibited.

COMPLETE CONTROLS

These are the default controls. To change your controller configuration, go to the Options section of the Extras menu.

THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW

As you approach a jump, press X to jack up your speed, then press + in the direction of your upcoming trick to pre-wind. The longer you hold the pre-wind the more rotations you get when you launch.

The key to long combos is linking air and ground tricks one after another. Use board and tail presses or pivots to link your tricks together on the ground.

TRICKS

So many tricks, so little time to show them off to your friends. Tricks are all about timing and they go a little something like this:

Press and hold A as you approach a jump. As soon as you hit the lip of the jump release the button to take off. In mid-air, use a combination of grabs, spins, flips, and tweaks to rack up points. Be sure to pre-wind your tricks to obtain maximum spinage after you take flight.

MONSTER TRICKS

When you want to go huge — I mean REALLY huge — throw down a monster trick. Fill up your ADDG bar by doing tricks and once the bar is either yellow or magenta, move R up, down, left, or right to show your skills.

PLAYING THE GAME

The time to become a Mountain Legend is now. Strap on one plank or step into two and prepare to make a name for yourself.

QUICK PLAY

The fastest way to get on the mountain and start having fun is Quick Play. It's also the ONLY way to challenge your friends to a head-to-head match-up.

Play as any of the unlocked characters or a character you've created for The Tour. You can then either freeride the entire mountain or choose a location and event. To customize your game, visit the My Rules section.

GAME SCREENS

The information you see on-screen changes depending on the type of event. Slopestyle and Race events are explained below. Check out pg. 6 for details about the Shred Challenges screen.

SLOPESTYLE SCREEN

RACE SCREEN

BOOST BAR

FILL the BOOST BAR by doing tricks, picking up boost collectables around the mountain, and by knocking down opponents and tourists. YOUR BOOST BAR decreases SLOWLY if you aren't doing tricks and QUICKLY if you wipeout. YOUR BOOST BAR can be a few different colors:

- White (flashing) If you pull off the trick you're currently trying, you get as much boost as the flashing lights indicate — so don't blow it.
- Green You're getting there. keep the tricks coming.
- Yellow It's time to let loose some monster tricks.
- Magenta At this point you have unlimited boost, until you fall and have to start all over again, that is.

SAVING AND LOADING

EA SPORTS BIG™ Tip: Be sure to turn the Autosave feature ON when prompted or in the Options menu so you never have to worry about losing your progress.

THE TOUR

Create a rider or skier and build a career as you progress from a slope-side wannabe to a black-diamond rockstar. Start your career by competing in shred challenges before getting invited to The TOUR, where you can enter medal events. Tear up the massive new mountain, but make sure you look good doing it because your reputation is always on the line. YOU create the hype — the hype creates a legend.

USER PROFILE

The first thing you do on The TOUR is create a user profile and build a character from scratch. Choose a name, whether your character is male or female, a rider or a skier, and finally how he or she looks.

THE TOUR MENU

Press X from the map screen to access The TOUR Menu. From there you can customize your music playlists, switch user profiles, review your rewards, and set options for The TOUR.

YOUR RANK

To become a black-diamond rockstar, you need to make a name for yourself and move up The charts. You start as a novice, but with a little time on the hill, you'll be somebody in no time. To see how far you've progressed, check out The charts from the Rewards section of The TOUR Menu.

HYPE

To improve your rank, you need to earn hype. There are a few ways to create hype and none of them have anything to do with going slow or being nice. Earn hype by completing shred challenges and medal events, knocking down or terrifying tourists as you fly by them, and escaping the relentless ski patrol.

At the end of every event, you see a tally of your newly earned hype.

THE MAP

Use the map to navigate the mountain and enter any of the events available to you. Also visit the map to access the gear, clothing, and the barber/beauty shops.

After choosing an event on the map, be sure to review the objective as the event loads.

SHRED CHALLENGES

Start building your rep by successfully completing shred challenges. Each shred challenge has a goal and once you complete it, the challenge is over and you're ready to move on to another one.

★ MEDAL EVENTS ★

After becoming an amateur, you are invited to join The Tour and compete in medal events. The competition is tough, but the rewards are big enough to compensate you for the effort. Use the money you earn to buy better equipment and attributes from the shops.

FREERIDE

Master your tricks and learn the mountain from top to bottom in Freeride mode. No pressure. No time limit. Once you've unlocked Freeride by playing The Tour, press Y on the map to enter Freeride mode.

SHOPS

You know all that cash you've got burning a hole in your parka? The shops are the place to spend it. They're also where you need to go to equip purchases and unlocked items.

gear shop

Purchase new boards and skis, tricks, and attributes. Buying better boards increase your abilities, while buying better tricks gets you more trick points.

clothing shop

Use your hard-earned cash to outfit your rider in the latest clothing for the mountain.

barber/beauty shop

Maintain your hair style or grow a little facial hair.

HINTS AND TIPS

- * If you think you're going big and there's only a tiny bit of the boost bar flashing you're not going big enough. Throw in an extra grab or tweak to get a little extra before you land.
- * Visit the shops and check out the monster tricks for sale, these tricks get you the huge points.
- * Follow the yeti signs to find hidden parts of the mountain and the shortcuts.
- * Keep an eye out for items you can pick up on the mountain. Boosts, cash, and boost moments that reward you in hype are scattered around to make things more interesting.
